

ALCOHOLIC CONSUMPTION
OKOTH JAMES 215020653 15/U/20773/EVE

1 Abstract

This report describes and investigates alcoholic consumption tendencies among the youth at makerere University and the future consequences of over consumption of alcohol.

2 Introduction

The purpose of this report is to provide an understanding into alcoholic consumption among university. By collecting data using the Open data Kit tools and analyzing the collected data, this report describes the trends in alcoholic consumption. further more the report evaluates effects of alcohol on the future generation.

3 Background of the problem

keeping alcohol consumption to a minimum is an important practice. Many measures have been put in place to help guide and guard the public against over consumption of alcohol for instance Government penalizes individuals who drink and drive and does not permit individuals below the age of eighteen to drink alcohol. With all these implemented and in place over consumption of alcohol is still a problem in Uganda.

4 Problem Statement

Over consumption of alcohol is a dangerous habbit that leads to various implications and may lead to insecurity, loss of lives, damage of property and so on. This report investigates and tries to solve this dangerous habbit.

5 Objectives

5.1 Main Objective

Reduction on consumption of alcohol.

5.2 Specific Objectives

- Avoiding accidents
- Preventing loss of lives

- Improving health
- Maintaining order in the society

6 Scope

The report targets Ugandan youth as a whole but the sample space taken is the Computer Science students at Makerere University.

7 Significance

The report educates the students and public at large about the effects of over consumption of alcohol and this is of great importance as it will reduce crimes, nurture responsible citizens and improve health of individuals in the societies.

8 Methodology

The report uses questionnaires and interview techniques to gather information from individuals within Makerere. Open Data Kit tools, ODK collect application was used, media types of audio, videos and images were collected and uploaded on the server <https://jamescollectionassign.appspot.com>. Reasons for drinking and recommendations for the future generation are described in the media.

9 Conclusion

From the report, alcoholic consumption is a wide practice and can be maintained at a good harmless level because consumption is not dangerous but over consumption is harmful.